Writing invented by the black Sumerians - first students and professors, the original gods, first epic, Gilgamesh, creation and flood myths complete with ark, calendar festivals like birth and death of Marduk bull calf of sun god Utu - northern hemisphere December Solstice => Roman Saturnalia => religio plagiarists, spring equinox rebirth festival fertility goddess Innana => Ishtar => Oestre => Easter, invention of the wheel, sexagesimal (base 60) system, first law codes, first details of musical instruments, the TruEtym of many Greek/Roman words, all subsequently recorded on clay tablets. Instead of being lauded as pioneers, they are now categorized as 'ancient' – supposedly everything they achieved has no connection to the plagiarists.

- Paint and decorate box include surprise treasure even make your own real clay tablet, add your name to the CT Book, even change the graphics cut out the 12 CT tablets, glue double-sided to make 6 bind in the corner with string, bury everything in sand, so the recipient has to unearth them as happened with the "Gilgamesh Epic" - the first ever written story 5,000 years ago
